

I am strongly against all cellular phone use on commercial aircraft.

I travel frequently and find cell phone users to be annoying and disruptive. I have never heard a call that sounded so important that it couldn't be delayed until the caller departed the aircraft. Cell phone use should be banned in all crowded public places.